Re: United States v Sarah Gillon, 19 Cr. 700 (VB)

Your Honor:

I represent Sarah Gillon in the referenced matter, and am writing to request that she be given permission to travel. When this prosecution commenced, Ms. Gillon was released on a bond, with one of the conditions being home detention. Ms. Gillon would now like to travel to Peekskill to see her family on September 7, 2020, which is her father's birthday. She asks that she be allowed to leave her home at 1 p.m. and return that evening by 9:30 p.m.

Pretrial services consents to this application. Earlier today, I emailed the government about this application, but have not heard back yet. On prior occasions, though, the government consented to similar requests.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
James E. Neuman
